Anthony Mansell is Director of Policy and Research at Climate Advisers, where he focuses on international climate policy, the role of carbon markets, and aviation.

Anthony was previously International Fellow at the Center for Climate and Energy Solutions (C2ES), one of the world's leading environmental policy think tanks. At C2ES, Anthony specialized in international carbon markets and climate finance. He also helped deliver the Toward 2015 Dialogue, an award-winning series of conversations with chief climate negotiators to discuss the substance of the Paris Agreement. From 2011 to 2014, Anthony was Deputy Director of the International Emissions Trading Association, representing over 150 companies to promote the use of carbon markets to reduce emissions cost-efficiently. In particular, Anthony led IETA's work on forestry and land-use, aviation, and engagement on California's Cap-and-Trade Program, and served as editor of IETA's annual publication, Greenhouse Gas Market.
