

Emma McMahon is a Program Coordinator for Climate Advisers, as well as the Executive Assistant to the President. As Program Coordinator, Emma manages a wide range of the firm's policy projects. In her role as Executive Assistant, Emma is involved in almost all aspects of the firm's projects.

Before joining Climate Advisers, Emma coordinated several state-wide canvass and Get Out the Vote campaigns, including the largest Election Day paid canvass effort of the 2016 election cycle in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Emma is a graduate of Wellesley College, where she studied Economics with a focus in International Relations.